ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION BY LORRAINE GONSALVES

By the Order Disallowing Claims of Lorraine F. Gonsalves filed on October 4, 2021 (Dkt. 11368), the Court disallowed claim # 87242 filed by Ms. Gonsalves in the amount of $5,148,879. In that order, the Court observed that Ms. Gonsalves had attempted to explain the basis of her claim in response that the Court described as "rambling, disjointed, and generally incomprehensible."

1 On October 13, 2021, Ms. Gonsalves forwarded to the Court a
2 box containing over a hundred pages of material. On November 3 15, 2021, she submitted a second and larger box containing 4 hundreds of additional pages. While Ms. Gonsalves did not seek 5 formal reconsideration of the Court's October 4, 2021 order, the 6 Court will treat her two boxes of papers as an informal motion
7 for reconsideration of the disallowance of her claim.

8 The Court has personally reviewed both boxes in their 9 entirety. There are dozens and dozens of pages relating in some 10 fashion to Pacific Gas and Electric Company and PG&E
11 Corporation; there are an equally if not larger number of pages
12 pertaining to various federal and state agencies having nothing 13 to do with these estates as well as papers pertaining to 14 apparent litigation involving Ms. Gonsalves elsewhere. The 15 papers are disorganized and provide no coherent theory from 16 which the Court can glean a basis to consider any relief in 17 favor of Ms. Gonsalves against Debtors.

18 Attached to this order is a twenty-page excerpt taken from 19 the second box that purports on the first page to be an 20 adversary proceeding cover page but thereafter continues a 21 disjointed and completely ambiguous assertion of various 22 contentions by Ms. Gonsalves. It is that document that the 23 Court focuses on as the closest that could be said to be a 24 request for reconsideration and which justifies the denial of 25 and reconsideration of the prior disallowance of Ms. Gonsalves'
26 claim.

27 The Court will not burden the record with these hundreds of 28 pages of documents that have been tendered. Rather, except for

1 the twenty-page excerpt referred to above and that follows this 2 order and which will be made part of the record, the Court is 3 directing the Clerk to return the two boxes and their complete
4 contents, without filing anything else, to Ms. Gonsalves, along
5 with a copy of this order. In order to complete the record, 6 however, what the Court has characterized as a motion for 7 reconsideration will be DENIED as setting forth no basis for any 8 relief that can be granted.
